To His EXCELLENCY

HENRY,

Lord Viscount SIDNEY;

Lord Lieutenant General and General Governour

OF

IRELAND:

THE HUMBLE

ADDRESS

OF THE

Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses in PARLIAMENT Assembled.

NATIONAL LIBRARY OF IRELAND

May it please Your Excellency,

WE Their Majesties most Loyal and Dutiful Subjects, the Commons in Parliament Assembled, having taken into Our Serious Consideration Your Excellencies Speech to Both Houses of Parliament, do, in the Name of Our Selves, and All the Commons of Ireland, most Humbly Render to Your Excellency Our Unfeigned and Hearty Thanks for the same: And as We have a most grateful Sence of Their Majesties Tender Care

Care and Indulgence towards Us, (a more particular Inſtance whereof We had in His Majeſties Expoſing His Royal Perſon to ſo many and great Hazards for Reducing this Kingdom, and the Re-Eſtabliſhment of the Proteſtant Religion and English Intereſt,) So are We fully Satisfied of Your Excellencies Generous Intentions to Repreſent Us, and Our Proceedings, favourably to Their Majeſties.

In Confidence whereof, We Crave Leave to Aſſure Your Excellency, That We do ſtedfaſtly Reſolve, not only to Perſevere in Our Duty and Loyalty, but to Proceed with ſuch Moderation and Temper, in Our Councells, as may Render them Moſt Acceptable to Their Majeſties.
